Dear Judge Baer:

We represent Plaintiff in the above referenced matter. Earlier today, I hand delivered a courtesy copy of Plaintiff's Opposition to Defendants' Motion In Limine to our adversary and chambers. I attempted to electronically file the papers and unfortunately the system could not accept our papers due to the size of the P.D.F. documents.

We therefore request permission to file our opposition at the clerk's office in paper form.

Permission granted.
It is so ordered.
